Overview

How do you build a kitchen frame?

Construct the Frame Build the Base: Mark your kitchen footprint and construct the base using treated lumber or metal studs. Make sure everything is level and anchored securely. Sheathe the Frame: Cover your frame with cement board or plywood to create a sturdy surface for your exterior finish. Leave proper cutouts for appliances.

Do you need a DIY outdoor kitchen?

Whether you're working with a compact patio or a full garden layout, a DIY outdoor kitchen can elevate your cooking, entertaining, and relaxation all in one go. Over the years, we've worked with countless homeowners who started with a simple grill setup and gradually built out fully functional outdoor kitchens.

What makes ext outdoor cabinets different?

EXT's outdoor cabinets are modular, so you can mix and match configurations based on your needs. Seating: Whether it's a bar ledge or patio table, make space for guests to gather and eat. Use All-Weather Materials: Anything not rated for outdoor use will degrade quickly. That includes sealants, glues, finishes, and even screws.

How do I choose a kitchen layout?

Think about how close you want your setup to be to the house. Having easy access to your indoor kitchen is a plus. Choose a Layout: L-shaped, U-shaped, and galley-style kitchens are the most popular DIY-friendly formats. In our experience, L-shaped layouts give you a solid mix of cooking, prep, and storage space without needing too large an area.
