

NKOSITHANDILEB SOLAR

South Sudan Container Base

Overview

Why are South Sudan containers stranded at the port of Mombasa?

According to the South Sudanese government, the fee, recently introduced by Kenyan authorities, has left hundreds of South Sudan-bound containers stranded at the Port of Mombasa, worsening congestion and raising fears of nationwide supply disruptions.

Does iContainers ship to Port Sudan?

Currently we do not offer shipping for Port Sudan. However, you can quote other destinations. If you are planning to ship a container to Port Sudan as a FCL (Full Container Load) or LCL (Less than a Container Load) shipment, iContainers has the best rates for ocean freight transport.

How much does shipping cost in South Sudan?

For Uganda and the DRC, it is USD 1,500. But for South Sudan, the fee is USD 5,000, and that is within Kenya," he said, calling the disparity unfair. Rizik warned that the rising costs when combining shipping, security fees, and handling have, in some cases, exceeded the value of the goods themselves, putting traders under severe financial strain.

Is the new levy a burden on South Sudan's business community?

The issue was the focus of a high-level meeting in Juba, chaired by Trade and Industry Minister Atong Kuol Manyang, with senior government officials and private sector leaders in attendance. The minister expressed deep concern over the new levy, which she called an unfair burden on South Sudan's business community.

South Sudan Container Base

According to the South Sudanese government, the fee, recently introduced by Kenyan authorities, has left hundreds of South Sudan-bound containers stranded at the Port of Mombasa, worsening congestion and raising fears of nationwide supply disruptions.

Currently we do not offer shipping for Port Sudan. However, you can quote other destinations. If you are planning to ship a container to Port Sudan as a FCL (Full Container Load) or LCL (Less than a Container Load) shipment, iContainers has the best rates for ocean freight transport.

For Uganda and the DRC, it is USD 1,500. But for South Sudan, the fee is USD 5,000, and that is within Kenya," he said, calling the disparity unfair. Rizik warned that the rising costs when combining shipping, security fees, and handling have, in some cases, exceeded the value of the goods themselves, putting traders under severe financial strain.

The issue was the focus of a high-level meeting in Juba, chaired by Trade and Industry Minister Atong Kuol Manyang, with senior government officials and private sector leaders in attendance. The minister expressed deep concern over the new levy, which she called an unfair burden on South Sudan's business community.

The notice also scrapped the longstanding empty container deposit of US$ 5,000. The directive, attributed to South Sudan Revenue Authority (SSRA's) Commissioner General ...

A Kenyan clearance agent has said South Sudanese traders could lose millions as thousands of containers remain stuck at the Port of Mombasa following the introduction of new ...

Why South Sudan is outraged In November, Transport Minister Rizik Zakaria Hassan revealed that Kenya had introduced a steep USD 5,000 security levy on every container ...

South Sudan-bound cargo is stuck at Mombasa port following a disagreement between South Sudan Revenue Authority and importers ...

South Sudan-bound cargo is stuck at Mombasa port following a disagreement between South Sudan Revenue Authority and importers over which currency should be used ...

South Sudan has criticized President William Ruto's administration after Kenya imposed Ksh 647,500 (USD 5,000) security levy on every container destined for Juba, ...

The South Sudan Freight Forwarders Association and South Sudan Business Community have urged the Ministry of Transport in Juba to restore a previously issued ...

Shipping containers at Kenya Port. , Courtesy. The Minister of Transport, Rizik Zachariah Hassan, has discussed with Kenyan authorities the reduction of container deposit ...

FILE PHOTO: Trucks await clearance at the Nimule yard, Tuesday, 7 September 2021 , Credit , Daniel Deng A Kenyan clearance agent has said South Sudanese traders could ...

Kenyan High Court upholds South Sudan's cargo handling agreements, protecting economic rights.

South Sudan's government has strongly protested a newly imposed USD 5,000 container security charge by the Kenyan authorities, saying the levy is crippling traders and ...

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please contact:

NKOSITHANDILEB SOLAR

Phone: +27-11-934-5771

Email: info@nkosithandileb.co.za

Website: <https://nkosithandileb.co.za>

Scan QR code to visit our website:

